

October 28, 1920.

From F. L. Bates.

R W Banks

La Mar, Mo.

married Miss Mary Northrup, daughter of Geo. Northrup, niece of Byron Booth Northrup, Racine, Wisconsin.

Banks died and Mrs. Banks continued contributions to her second cousin, John Wilkes Booth.

Banks stated Geo. Northrup made contribution of $100 a year to John Wilkes Booth and were continued by R. W. Banks and his wife, Miss Mary Northrup, according to information furnished Bates by R. W. Banks about 1915 or 1916.

Geo Northrup died ?

W. B. Penniman, undertaker who looked after body.

Wired 12/28 B. M. Robinson, Akron, Ohio, to ascertain if Penniman located there.

F. A. Demond

Box 141 - Cavendish, Vt.

Party who let Booth across the bridge with Corp. Sullivan, Pt. Drake and Johnson.

Closed gate at 9:00 P.M. Drake on guard, to be relieved by Demond at 11:00 o'clock. Johnson to relieve him at 10:00 o'clock. Sullivan on guard and asked Demond to help open gate.

B. B. Brown, former night clerk Grand Avenue Hotel, Enid, Okla.
(Remittance received for Booth after death.)

Booth's funeral expenses borne by W. B. Penniman and F. L. Bates.
Body turned over to Junius Brutus Booth.

Franklin Ruddy
Cox Plantation, Potomac River

David E. Herold, drug clerk in Washington

Boston Corbeatt Hiwate, who shot Booth went insane, sent to Kansas State Asylum.

First met John Phillips, St. Louis ?

Farmers Loan and Trust Company, New York. First meeting
then floating R R Bonds, Corinth Miss to Tennessee River.

Interfered with Belmont of L & N, dominated by Belmont.

Philips lived in London, England. Bates knowledge, he was here two or three times.

Meeting at Alms House, Walnut House, secret. Philips, Bates, and stenographer, Joe Hoeb.

W W Snider, a Jew. Photo 1868 - 24 yrs. Sold out business to John St. Helen.

Get photo of Booth from Mrs. Cameron