Dearborn Publishing Company,
Dearborn, Mich.

Dear Mr. Black:

I am enclosing herewith five photographs of the old colored lady down in lower Maryland who stood at the door the night Booth came there and which you asked me to secure for you. I took my car and kodak and went down and took them myself. I had to give the old lady a dollar before she would consent to pose and promised to send her a photograph, but have lost her address. If you have it, please send it to me, and I will have some more developed and send to her.

Yours very truly,
