Dear Mr Macartney:

Thank you very much for your letter of the 8th. I am mailing the book under separate cover and herewith enclose postage for its return. The copies of the Dearborn Independent containing a complete set of my articles were mailed several days ago. If you do not receive them promptly, please advise me and I will send another set.

The reading of your book is giving me great pleasure. I appreciate having it in my Lincoln Library.

With best wishes, we are

Very truly yours
