Dear Mr Clarke:

Your communication of March 19th addressed to Mr Frank Campsall has been referred to the writer. We have in our correspondence files the story you send with reference to David George, who was thought by some to be John Wilkes Booth. Thank you, however, for sending the copy for we are always interested in having additional ones.

Mr Campsall advises me that they would not be interested in the picture of Columbus.

With best wishes, we are

Very truly yours
