

Judge I. G. Conklin, former Circuit Judge and Secretary of the Elks Lodge, Enid, Okla., ~~He~~ remembers Robison very well as a land attorney who worked in the local land office. He says he is sure he came from some place in Georgia and lived in Enid from about 1893 until the time of his death. He says that nothing was found among the effects of D. E. George to show that he had ever belonged to the Elks.
