My dear Mr. Gachary

Your letter recd. & thank you for your interest & invitation to join you in a joint exhibit. I am asking $3500 for books, mummy, picture plates etc. $2000 for the mummy alone but of course 10% for selling. This is a most reasonable price as I have a standing offer to have at $2500 for book. Mr. Bates at one time employed a lecturer & traveled with the mummy & made from $200.00 to $350.00 for suck & only played the small game. This is a great money making scheme but I have no one in the family to take hold. Of course when this issue of the book is exhausted I shall not reprint.

I am sure with your fluency of speech & writing you could make a fortune. The mummy is like any Egyptian mummy has the wrappings & in a perfect condition. Features hair & etc perfect. I am especially anxious to dispose of the whole matter as I am leaving home for some
