

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, April 23, 1865.

SINGULAR APPOINTMENTS.

Considerable excitement has existed here for the past few days in consequence of the appointment by United States Deputy-Marshal Phillips, in the absence of Marshal Lamon, of several citizens as Marshals at the funeral of Mr. Lincoln, who are reported to be disloyal.

Mr. Phillips has tendered his resignation. It is understood that Marshal Lamon will resign on his return to the city.
