

FROM WASHINGTON

Special Dispatch to The N Y Tribune

Washington, Wednesday, May 24, 1865

It is understood here that the trial of the assassins was adjourned, not on account of the Review, but to allow the Government two days time in which to examine the eight tuns of Rebel documents forwarded to the War Department. There is reason to believe important testimony will be adduced from this source.

New York Daily Tribune
Thursday, May 25, 1865
page 4 col 4