Miss Josie Cameron,

Little Rock, Ark.

Dear Miss Cameron:-

I came over to Guthrie to look after a bill that the Dramatic Mirror requested me to get enacted, and was delighted to see "A Woman in the Case" billed for today. I exhausted the meager supply of flowers in the Guthrie Florists and went to the depot with them to meet you. Imagine my disappointment to find that you were not with them.

I had looked forward with so much pleasure to hearing you sing that I was quite depressed at the totally unexpected calamity of your sudden disappearance.

I gave Mrs. Hamilton the flowers, and I thought I would take the liberty of writing and asking you to let me know if you decide to go on the road again. If you do so, keep me posted as to your general route, so that if opportunity offers I may yet have the pleasure of seeing and hearing the charming "Arkansas Patti."

With regards, I remain

Very sincerely yours

John Walter Robison

Mrs. Josie Cameron,

Little Rock, Ark.

Dear Mrs. Cameron:

Your kind letter was a pleasant surprise to me. I thought my own had miscarried or that you had accepted some other engagement on the road.

I am sorry that you were disappointed in the company, but, I think you acted wisely in leaving. Hamilton told me you left because you were afraid of catching Smallpox.

I have heard that he has the reputation of not paying people who work for him. I suppose that it is too late in the season to look for another engagement on the road. I hope you will make some vaudeville dates where I shall be able to see and hear you this summer.

I shall probably go to Chicago, St. Louis and possibly New York (and of course Kansas City) and it would be a great pleasure to run across you and see you in some of your vaudeville roles some where on my route.

I hope that if you go out with your own Company next season that you will make Enid one point on your route.

I would like to have you come to Oklahoma under more auspicious circumstances than you were under here. As I feel sure you will get so in love with the country that Mr. Cameron will have to come here in order to have peace in the family.

A friend of mine Mr. Charles E. Marvin was here last with a clean, bright little comedy and an excellent all-around company. There was no coherence in the plot as it was a mere (?) of humorous situations taken from several old comedies, but it was full of musical numbers and specialties and was bright and catchy. If I had got your letter sooner I would have spoken to him of you.

Let me know if you make any new engagement or vaudeville dates and it will always be a pleasure to hear from you.

If I should have occasion to visit Little Rock I will be sure to look you up and accept your kind invitation to call.

Hoping that I shall have the pleasure of seeing you again before a very great while. I remain,

Very Sincerely,

Your friend.
