Gentlemen: I have been reading with great interest in The Dearborn Independent, "How Lincoln Met His Death"
I am enclosing a "Clipping" from my Hometown Paper,
The Evening News, published in Roanoke Va. having kept it these twenty odd years.

I thought it would be of particular interest to the readers of The Independent just at this time, and I will be very glad if you will give it space, provided you think it will prove interesting;

My reason for Clipping and preserving it just at that ~~at~~ time, I moved to Memphis Tenn from Va.
and coming into the city on the Train I read in the Commercial Appeal that Morning an account of John Wilkes Boothers living in Oklahoma & it also had a photo; of him, since that time I have read many items about his living in many places, but knowing Dr-Peddicord intimately have never doubted the sincerity of his account;

Yours truly,
Charles Lyle.
