Dear Mr Smith:

Have your letter of July 8th.

Am planning on taking my vacation beginning week after next, so if you would be so kind, would appreciate having you answer by mail, as I am afraid
I may miss you.

Am very sorry to impose upon your good nature to the extent of going to all this trouble, but it is all in the interests of the "Correction of History," as Mr. Bates said.

Very truly yours
