

The Literary Digest
INTERNATIONAL BOOK REVIEW

354-360 Fourth Avenue
New York, N. Y.

September 26, 1924.

OFFICE OF THE EDITOR

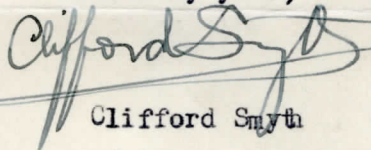

Dr. Amos T. Harington
Hartford, Conn.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of September twenty-fourth has been referred to me. So far as I know Funk & Wagnalls Company has no intention of publishing Dr. Wilson's book on John Wilkes Booth.

The manuscript of the latter was under consideration for publication but the house finally decided not to undertake it.

Sincerely yours

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Clifford Smyth". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping underline that extends across the width of the signature.

Clifford Smyth