Miss Josie Cameron
Little Rock Ark.

Dear Miss Cameron
Your kind
letter was a pleasant surprise to me. I thought my own had miscarried
or that you had accepted
some other engagement
on the road.

I am sorry that you
were disappointed in the company but I think you acted wisely in leaving. Hamilton told me you left because you were afraid of
catching small-pox.
I have heard that he has the reputation of not paying people who work for him. I suppose that it is too late in the season to look for another engagement on the road. I hope you will make some arrangements with dates where I shall be able to see and hear you this summer.

I shall probably go
to Chicago at Ford's and possibly New York (and of course Kansas City) and it would be a great pleasure to see across
you and be you in
home of your friends -
with folks somewhere on my route.

I hope that if you
go out with your open Carriage next season
that you will make Enid your point on
your route.
I would like to have
under more auspicious
Country that Mr. Cannon
will have to come here
in the family.
A friend of mine Mr Charles E. Harris was

here last with a
bright little comedy and
an excellent all round
climax in the plot
as it was a mere string
of humorous situations
taken from several old
comedies, but it was full of musical numbers and spicathies and was bright and catchy. If I had got your letter sooner
I would have spoken
to him of you.

Let me know if you
make any new engagement or Vanderbilt date
