Dear Sir:

Your letter of March 26th has been referred to the writer.

We appreciate your sending the copy of the poem from the 1872 edition of Lamon's Life of Lincoln. In the series of articles we are running on the assassination and the disposition of John Wilkes Booth, we haven't been so much interested in the causes for the assassination as in printing the results of a five-year investigation into the various stories about Booth's escape.

After you have read the entire series - seven in number, we shall be quite glad to hear from you again as to what you think of them.

Very truly yours
