

The Enid Daily Wave.
June 15, 1903

Enid Sensational Lies Refuted.

The body of George, alias Booth is still with the undertakers. It was not taken away by Bates or ordered shipped after him; reports to the contrary are all lies. It has also been reported that a capitalist was in Enid looking over the city with an eye toward the building of an enormous Chicago capacity opera house. We are sorry to say that no such an opera house builder ever appeared here, but we wish he would come. Maybe the lie will bring him.