GUTHRIE, OKLAHOMA,

5th Nov 11 1901

Miss Corie Courvon
Lettie Rock Cook

Dear Miss Courvon

I came over to Guthrie to look after a Bill that the Dramatic Union requested me to get enacted, and was delighted to see "A Woman in the Car" billed for today. I exhausted the magazine supply of flowers in the Guthrie florist
and went to the depot
with them to meet you.
I imagine my disappointed meet to find that you ever not with them.

I had looked forward with so much pleasure to hearing you sing that I was quite depressed at the totally unexpected calamity of your sudden disappearance.

I gave Mrs Hamilton
the flowers - and I thought I would take the liberty of writing and asking you to let me know if you decide to go on the road again. If you do so, keep me posted
as to your general route
