He stopped private car at the Union station, and on March 23 made the offer to Oldroyd, it is learned. He stopped off at Washington en route to Flor-ida, for the purpose, and was ac-companied by Mrs. Ford, and a rew friends. For 60 years Oldroyd has gathering his Lincoln collection, and at an advanced age, being more or less dependent upon admission fees to the collection for a liveli-bood, he desires that it be trans-ownership that will hood, he desires that it be ferred to an ownership th forever perpetuate it, he said REFUSED MAINTENANCE ownership tha uate it, he said.

REFUSED interest we congresses have heretofore declined to provide for permanent presevation of the col-lection by not making the necesof ge an in sary appropriation, it seems to be assured the next congress will do so, for it is not believed Republican politicians will care to have it said Henry Ford is willing to do in be-half of the patron saint of the re-vublican post. ab ag publican party something the lead-ers of that party will not do.
