

Harry Hawk

The President was received with great furore on entering the theater; his reception was, indeed, extraordinary. One of the actors (Mr Hawk) had made the remark (as "Dundreary"), this "reminds me of a story, as Mr Lincoln says," and was telling the story as the President entered. The enthusiasm of the audience interrupted the story for several minutes. After the President was seated the actor was forced by the people to tell the "story" over again.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE MONDAY APRIL 17TH
NEWSPAPER ACCOUNTS FROM THE WASHINGTON
INTELLIGENCER OF SATURDAY
Page 1 Column 6