2. N.Y. Daily Tribune, Aug. 16, 1885-Narrow Escape of Lincoln-

Lincoln story during that month in the "morgue" of the Herald-regarding Lincoln during the eight years.

3. The Sun, ^{Dec} 1902 series of Samuel Arnold stories re: the assassination.
Got the dates in the Sun "morgue" and went to the Public Library checking each date, page number etc ordered photostats for following: 27 pages

6. New York Times, July 12, 1936 story about "Got's Diary". In the New York Times "morgue" got a clipping of the article which was killed after 1st edition; photostat of this on 12/21/37; also a photostat of 1885 story about Booth tossing the call-boy at the Ford Theatre a $5.00 gold piece as he ran out to kill Lincoln. 2 pages
7. John Wiles^k Booth's playing career. Went to The Players, 16 Gramercy Place, New York City on Jan. 1st, 1938. Copied from "Notable Players of the Past and Present" which was a book containing biographical articles clipped from "The New York Clipper", 1910-11 and carefully pasted. It traces his life from his debut in 1855 in Baltimore until the assassination.

At the Public Library on 1/4/38 ordered photostats of the playbills for his first appearance in Washington, Grove's Theatre, April 11, 1863; and the Winter Garden benefit performance of Julius Caesar of the three Booth brothers, Nov. 25, 1864. Ordered a photostat of the "ad" in the N.Y. Times the day before (not aware that I would be able to get the original playbill).

1/3/38 looked thru the files of the New York Times March, 1862 and Nov.
1864. His first appearance in N.Y. at the Mary Provost Theatre running two weeks between March 17 to 31st; and The Winter Garden appearance in 1864.

28 pages

NEW YORK DRAMATIC MIRROR, Feb. 26, 1916; story of Booth at School by James Shettel.

- (a) This publication not kept on file in the newspaper file room; later checked the clipping folders in the Theatrical Sect. on 3rd floor where I found the story and ordered photostat, 1/4/38. 1 page
- (b) Since the above publication not kept on file, my only resort was to clipping file: the clippings on him were for the most part after the assassination; the "Spirit of The Times"(N.Y.) gave one column on his 1862 appearance at "Mary Provost's"; no references to earlier performances; no Southern newspapers in point; saw playbill of Grove's Theatre, Washington, announcing first appearance which I had photostated. 1 page

NEW YORK TELEGRAPH, May 23, 1909; story by Deery.

"Sun Telegraph" as given me was an error. Fortunately I was able to unearth the very article in the Theatrical Sect. photostats ordered 1/4/38. 1 page

NEW YORK HERALD, June 27, 1909; "Recollections of John W. Booth" by Sir

Charles Wyndham; magazine Sect. pages 1 & 2. 2 pages

Ordered photostats on 12/31/37; on 1/4/38 was informed it was copyrighted; went to Herald-Tribune twice and then The Sun for written consent; neither paper seemed to know who owned the copyrights; situation absurd in that paper was printed 29 yrs. ago having passed the copyright limitation; managed to wrangle a negative consent from the Sun "will not object etc." which satisfied the technical librarians.
